At a glance: Visa for a study-related internship EU

Visa and entry procedure for immigrants from third countries subject to visa obligation

General entitlement requirements (Section 5 Act on the Residence - AufenthG): passport, proof of financial means, no existing reason for expulsion

Step 1
Check the requirements
- Internship confirmation or internship agreement issued by a German institution: Internship must correspond to the subject matter of your course of study
- Enrollment at a foreign university or university degree not older than 2 years
- Secure financial means (e.g. coverage of the cost of living by the institution hosting the internship)

Please consider what the internship agreement must contain (Section 16e para. 1 no. 2 Act on the residence - AufenthG)

Please consider: Requirements may vary due to intergovernmental agreements and special arrangements.

Step 2
Make an appointment at the German embassy
- Preparation of necessary documents: e.g. passport, proof of internship, proof of financial means, visa application form

Please consider: The German embassies provide information about possible waiting times for appointments and any additional documents that may be required on their websites.

Step 3
Apply for a visa in the country of residence
- Bring documents in their entirety
- Fees: EUR 75 (in local currency)

Please consider: Processing time ranges from a few days to several weeks.

Step 4
Enter Germany
- Issuance of visa for a study-related internship EU in Germany
- Book flight/journey to Germany

Please consider: It is mandatory to have sufficient health insurance coverage prior to entering Germany.

Step 5
Apply for a residence permit in Germany
- Make appointment with foreigners authority
- Apply for residence permit for a study-related internship EU (Section 16e Act on the Residence - AufenthG)
- Request a list of the required documents from the foreigners authority and prepare them
- Handling fees can be up to EUR 100 (Section 45 Residence Ordinance - AufenthV)

Please consider: The residence permit must be applied for before the entry visa expires.
