

Bavaria

Beautiful landscapes, friendly people, attractive economy: Bavaria is a truly fascinating state. Its economy is booming and its labour market offers plenty of opportunities for international professionals. In addition to well-known global players, many SMEs with an international focus and renowned businesses with a longstanding tradition also call Bavaria their home and are always looking for qualified staff.

Capital

Munich

Important industries

Automotive engineering
Mechanical engineering
Healthcare
Metal industry
IT
Biotechnology
Medical, energy and environmental technology
Electrical engineering

Population

13.124.737

Particularities

Brass music, Dirndl & Lederhosen: The Oktoberfest in Munich connects people from all over the world.

For more information on the federal state of Bavaria, please visit bayern.de

Important portals and service points for immigrants

Work in Bavaria

Bavarian Ministry of Social Affairs: Advice Centers for the Recognition of Foreign Professional Qualifications

Service Center für Internationale Fachkräfte in München

Welcome Center in the county of Roth

MigraNet - Network IQ Bavaria

Study in Bavaria

amiga - Municipal project for international professionals and students starting their careers in Munich

Additional contacts

World map

Find important institutions in your home country

Authority finder

Find contact details and other offers from important German authorities in Germany

Welcome Services

Find contact details and other offers of all Welcome Centers nationwide